

Two Days, Three Workshops...

South Carolina Trucking Association hosts

1. Complying with the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations
2. Reasonable Suspicion Supervisor Training
3. HazMat Certification/Recertification

All at one location. Attend 1, 2 or 3...your choice.

Ledbetter Building, Room 253, Spartanburg Community College, 107 Community College Drive | Spartanburg, SC 29303

Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations

Tuesday, October 1 - 9:00am until 4:00pm (lunch provided)

Led by: SCTA; SCDPS; and FMCSA

1

- We'll cover it all from general requirements to driver qualifications and vehicle maintenance to document retention.
- Make sure that you are properly hiring and drug testing your drivers.
- Get you and your company up to speed on all the latest changes!
- Make sure your company is complying with all the mandatory rules!
- Learn how to improve your risk management program!
- How Risk Management can help you improve your Safety Compliance efforts!
- Certificate of participation provided.

Reasonable Suspicion Drug & Alcohol

Wednesday, October 2 - 9:30am until 12:00pm

Led by: Dearon Tyler, Roadside Manners

2

- Satisfies the requirements for 49 CFR 382.603 including:
- Symptoms of alcohol abuse
- Symptoms of controlled substances use
- Identifying circumstances and indicators that may create reasonable suspicion
- How to properly record behaviors and refer an employee for testing
- All locations and shifts should have trained supervisors including safety, terminal, HR, etc in order to comply
- Certification provided

Hazardous Materials Training for Certification Seminar

Wednesday, October 2 - 1:00pm until 4:00pm

3

- History of Hazardous Material Regulations
- Definitions
- Emergency Response Guide
- Shipping Papers
- Placarding
- Marking & Labeling
- Loading, Segregation & Securement
- HazMat Out-of-Service
- Roadside Inspection/Enforcement
- Emergency Response - Spill Plan
- Performance-Oriented Packaging (POP)
- HazMat Transportation Plan
- Certification provided
- Job-specific must be handled by company

All workshops include topic-specific materials, appropriate certification, and snacks/drinks. Lunch provided for those attending the FMCSR workshop and anyone attending both on Wednesday, October 2.

